

TIENTSIN.

[FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.]

October 22nd, 1883.
Sir Harry Parkes paid a visit to Li Hung-chang at 9 a.m. yesterday, and did not leave the Yamen till 11.20 a.m. It is said that Sir Harry informed Li that he was going to Korea to make a treaty, quite on a new basis and independent of China, this has very much displeased the Viceroy. Sir Harry left to-day per Sin Nanting and it is said that he has given Mr. Keswick an invitation to take a trip with him. Mr. Keswick has been at Peking over two weeks.

Yesterday, at 3 p.m., M. Tricot, Minister for France, called upon Li Hung-chang and remained in audience with him till 6 p.m. They had a lengthy discussion, on the question, it is said, of the Abkhaz, who is now staying here, but the Viceroy refused to pay him any remuneration for the losses he sustained. It is also said that M. Tricot received a milder treatment from the Chinese than Sir George Bowen, for M. Tricot was only released of his watch and breast-pin.

A Shanghai paper and some of the home papers of late appear to give a new hope to the Chinese, and they seem to have assumed a firmer attitude towards the France-Annam question.

There is a rumour amongst the Chinese that Li Hung-chang has refused to take the 100 Krupp guns, 40 of which were landed some time since. The late visits of the French, British, and United States Ministers to Li Hung-chang seem to have cast a gloom over the bright hopes of the Chinese officials here.—Mercury.

NEWS BY THE FRENCH MAIL.

The Messageries Maritimes Company's steamship Traoudy, Capt. Pasqualini, with home mails up to September 28th, arrived in harbour this morning. The following items of general news are taken from the London and China Express:

Mr. Patenôtre, the new Minister of France to Peking, will leave for China early in next month. The gunboat Moore, Lt. Commander James H. Corfe, homebound from the China Station, left Malta on the 26th inst.

Recent additions to the Zoological Society's Gardens include two Chinese monkeys from China, presented by Mr. G. A. Conder, and a pig-tailed monkey from Java, presented by Mr. Robert Smith.

Nothing is at present being done in the negotiation between the British and Japanese Governments for the revision of the Treaty. The arrival of the new British Minister in Japan will be awaited ere any further steps are taken.

The steamer Alaska, of the Guion Line, arrived at New York at four a.m. on the 23rd inst. Her passage is said to be the fastest on record. It occupied six days twenty-two hours forty minutes. Her runs were respectively: 415 miles, 393 miles, 486 miles, 414 miles, 430 miles, 436 miles, and 310 miles; total, 2,784.

The Carriado, recently built by Messrs. Ramage and Ferguson, of Leith, to the order of Messrs. Ker Bolton and Co., Glasgow, for Messrs. Reyes and Co., of Manila, has had her trial trip, when the speed attained was 12 knots per hour. The Carriado is intended for service between Singapore and Manila, in conjunction with the French mail.

Captain R. S. Pasley, formerly in command of H.M.S. Champion on the China Station, who was invalided in consequence of a serious illness, has arrived home, and is now residing at Moorhill, Bedford, Hants, the residence of his father, Admiral Sir T. S. Pasley, formerly Commander-in-Chief at Portsmouth. Captain Pasley, who was glad to learn, is gradually recovering.

The Nanshan, a steamer of about 1,400 tons, has been launched at Whitehead, on the Clyde, by Messrs. Charles Connell and Co. She has been built for the Nanshan Shipping Company (Limited), of London, to class 100 at Lloyd's. The vessel has water ballast right fore and aft, and is specially constructed to trade in Chinese waters. The engines, of 180-horse power nominal, being supplied by Messrs. James Howden and Co.

Major Henry Francis Phillips, of the Royal Artillery, whose death is announced as having taken place at Colombo, received his professional training at the Royal Military Academy at Woolwich, from which he was gazetted, to a Lieutenancy in the Royal Artillery on Oct. 1, 1857. In 1860 he served with the expedition to China, and was present at the actions of Sihho, Tangku, the capture of the Taku Forts, the affairs near Tangchow, and the surrender of Peking, receiving a medal with two clasps for his military services.

The Oreuter troopship has had her water-tight compartments so far as to extend to the deck above as well as the deck below the water-line, while she has also been fitted up with the electric light, the whole of the vessel from the keel to the yardarm being thus illuminated. The Oreuter will leave Portsmouth on the 21st proximo with 800 naval officers and men, who will form relief crews for the Champion, Claudia, Elyria, Phylax, Darling, Albatross, and Zephyr, on the China Station. She will also take out drafts for four regiments now at the Cape, including a cavalry regiment.

Commander Lawrence R. G. R. on appointment to the charge of the De-la-Rue sloop, having his acquaintance with the China Station, where he served last in the Iron Duke. He entered the Navy in 1856. In 1860 he was appointed midship of the Fawn, sloop, Commander R. P. Cator, with which he served on the Australian Station for three years, obtaining his promotion in her to acting sub-lieutenant, and while serving with her gaining the silver medal of the Royal Humane Society for jumping overboard and saving the life of a seaman off the Cape of Good Hope. Commander R. G. R. returned home in 1862 he qualified in gunnery, and in 1864 joined the Princess Royal, with which he served in the East Indies and China, under Admiral King, until the close of her commission in 1867. As first lieutenant of the Oreuter he served in that ship from October, 1867, to August, 1868, including Abyssinian services, for which he was promoted commander. His last employment was as second in command of the Challenger, in her scientific voyage round the world from June, 1873, to 1876. For this last service he was promoted to his present rank. Captain R. G. R. has the Baltic medal, Crimean medal, with Sebastopol clasp, Turkish medal, China medal with Taku clasp, and Abyssinian medal.

The Cape mail steamer Guthrie Castle has arrived at Plymouth with Captain W. B. Lindsay and the officers of the iron steamship Consolation, of Leith, which was wrecked July 30th on Gaddiford Island. The Consolation, which was the property of Messrs. Edwards & Co., Leith, left Singapore, via Penang, for London, and when arriving at the entrance of the Gulf of Aden on the morning of July 12th, was being strong south-west winds and a high sea, she went ashore on Gaddiford Island. Efforts to back her off by steam and sails proved alike unavailing, and three hours after she hummed a leak filled her engine-room.

Soon after daylight the natives began to come off, swimming through or rather diving under the surf, and began to assist themselves to the cargo. They were driven off, and returned in larger numbers, and were so threatening in their attitude that the officers and crew decided to take to their boats, taking along with them provisions and water. The next night, during strong wind and heavy sea, one of the three boats, a lifeboat, in which was the captain, capsized, and two of the occupants were drowned. After enduring four days and three nights of torture from thirst and a burning sun, they landed at Ras, and were welcomed by the Arabs. Here they remained for some time, but eventually they intercepted a French mail packet, which brought them to Mauritius. A court of inquiry was held there, and the master's certificate was suspended for twelve months, the court holding that he was guilty of default in omitting to take soundings when nearing a coast.

The new Guion liner Oregon was tried on the 21st inst. on the Clyde, and developed remarkable results. She had been designed to exceed all other vessels at present running on the Atlantic, and her trials give promise of the realisation of the design. The steaming trials gave results never before attained in ocean-going vessels. She steamed for seven hours continuously, and in a run from Ailsa Craig to the Cumbræ Heads, a distance of 291 knots, with a remnant of the tide against her, she steamed the distance in 1 hour and 27 minutes. This gives a speed of over 20 knots, or more than 23 ordinary miles per hour. The indicated horse power was upwards of 12,000. On the 21st inst. she cruised in the same water with similar results, and left the Clyde for Liverpool.

The Oregon has been built by Messrs. J. I. Elder and Co., of Fairford Works, Govan. She has been constructed on lines similar to those of the Ariana, built in 1879, and the Alaska, in 1881, but with modifications suggested by experience, and designed to secure greater speed and stability. Her length is 320 feet, her breadth 54 feet, and her depth 40 feet 6 inches. Her gross tonnage is about 7,500, and she is fitted to accommodate 340 first class, 92 second class, and 170 third class passengers, or, if need be, 1,000 in place of cargo. The most striking feature of the vessel is its enormous steaming power. The engines represent a capacity greater than any yet put on board a vessel, and the boiler power is correspondingly large. The engines are exceedingly simple in construction. The two low pressure cylinders stand on each side of the high pressure, and the connecting rods are in each case geared into cranks that balance each other and produce a smooth and equal motion. The high pressure cylinder is 70 in. in diameter, and the low pressure 104 in. The stroke is 6 feet.

RIFLE SHOOTING.

REGULARS &amp; VOLUNTEERS.

Home papers report an important rifle match between a team of 17 sergeants selected from the various battalions of the Brigade of Guards quartered in the metropolis, and an equal number of volunteers, members of the metropolitan rifle club of which General Lord Wolsey is president, which recently came off at the Park ranges near Tottenham, and created more interest than has attached to any event of the kind, ever held in London, since the Wimbledon meeting of the 17th who were opposed to the Guards, the old civic regiment (Hon. Artillery Company of London) had the largest proportion—eight; Middlesex was represented by seven, and the City of London and the Tower Hamlets by one each. Lieut. Bateman, H.A.C., who recently won the Prince of Wales's Prize at the meeting of his regiment, was captain of the Volunteer team, assisted by Private Rosenthal, of the same regiment; and the interests of the Regulars were watched by Sergeant-Major P. Smith, 1st Scots Guards, who, like many of the competitors in his side, wore the medal and a bronze cross of the Egyptian campaign. Regulars are not so well known to shooting-fame as Volunteers, and it would consequently be impossible to specify the particular occasions when some of the sergeants have most distinguished themselves; but that they have done well in the army inter-regimental rifle matches, and in other events, besides the annual course at Farnborough, admits of no doubt. The conditions, briefly, were seven shots at each of the ranges of 200, 300, and 600 yards, Wimbledon, 1883, targets and scoring, any position, and Government Martini-Enfield rifles, two sighting shots at each range, 17 men each, but only the best 15 to count. All the preliminaries having been arranged, firing opened at a quarter to three, when the club, by splendid shooting, took a lead which held off for the success of the Regulars, the majority at the close showing some 30 points. Private Hinde, Queen's, headed the list with 34 points out of a possible 35, six bullseyes and an inner, and as showing the perfection of his shooting, not one man N. or on the 15 scored less than 30, the next best total being 28 of Sergeant E. S. Roberts, H.A.C., and 23 each by Colour-Sergeant Gilbert, 3rd Middlesex, Sergeant Scott, T.H.R.B., Private Brooking, H.A.C., Private H. W. Young, 1st Herts, Private Silver, H.A.C., and Private Rosenthal, H.A.C. On the side of the Guards there was one 33 by Colour-Sergeant Mann, 1st Grenadiers, two 32's by Drill-Sergeant Kellman, 1st Scots, and Colour-Sergeant Shade, 1st Coldstreams, and four 30's by Colour-Sergeant Dean, 1st Scots, Colour-Sergeant Bowen, 1st Coldstreams, Sergeant Williams, 1st Scots, and Colour-Sergeant Scott, 1st Coldstreams. At 500 yards the shooting on the part of the North London Rifle Club surpassed that at the shorter distance, three competitors getting within one point of the highest possible—Sergeant Sage, Sergeant Pullman, and Private H. W. Young—while Hinde added 33 to his score, and Lowe (Queen's), who had made 31, put on 31. Silver also added 33 to his 30, and Private Fountain, 1st Herts, 32 to his 30. Only one of the team of the Brigade of Guards succeeded here in getting 30—Drill-Sergeant Kellman; but there were two 29's, by Colour-Sergeant Shade, and Sergeant-Major Thomas, and four of 28 by Lance-Sergeant Hawkins, Orderly-room Sergeant May, Pioneer-Sergeant Ravenscroft, and Sergeant Major Polson. At this range the Guards lost another 80 points, and the struggle was hopeless, as at the last distance six of the North London scored 30 and upwards, while there was not a single record of the same kind on the other side. The official record was—North London Rifle Club, 1,306 (the Brigade of Guards, 1,201)—majority, 100. North London Rifle Club, 1,651 points. At the close of the contest the captain of the Guards said that though it was evident they could not shoot in the form displayed by the Volunteers that day, they could shoot, and in appreciation of the splendid shooting, which had been exhibited by the team to which they had been opposed, he proposed that three hearty cheers, which were lustily given by the Guardsmen. A similar compliment having been paid by the Volunteers to their opponents, the proceedings closed.

The Hongkong Telegraph

HONGKONG, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1883.

A SHORT time ago, in the furtherance of public interests, we called the attention of the powers that be for the moment to a case in which the lives of thirty five human beings were jeopardised, and at least two sacrificed, through what we were fain to consider laches on the part of the immaculate Surveyor General's Department. It is true the matter only concerned the lives of thirty five Chinese; nevertheless we made bold to give publicity to the affair, in the hope that our fossilised Executive might be moved to take action in the matter. We have yet to learn that this has been done, and now, in accordance with our interpretation of public duty, another equally grievous case has come under our observation. This case is the second of the same nature which has come under our own notice within the last few weeks, so we conclude we shall be exonerated from any indecent haste in exposing it or from any malicious intent in attacking the Honorable Surveyor General's Department. Our readers may have observed that considerable excavations are going on in the hill side where the new Roman Catholic Cathedral is to be built, and from the information we have gleaned from the coolies employed, it would appear that the Surveyor General's department, being in want of the diris excavated, has made an arrangement to remove it to the Public Gardens, where it is utilised for filling in, free of expense. So far so good, but there is apparently no proper person to superintend the excavations, and the result is that frequent dangerous landslips occur through the ignorance of the coolies undermining the hill side. About a fortnight ago some half dozen coolies were swept down a height of about 30 feet in one of these landslips and buried for a time, and when eventually recovered, were carried away in a pitiable condition; a few days afterwards two men met a similar accident,—one, a youth, being dug out in an almost lifeless state, and we understand he has since died. We, therefore, think it is high time that some more effective arrangements were made by which the lives of the poor ignorant coolies engaged in such work in the colony would be properly protected. Indeed, we should not be afraid of entering the lists and challenging the practice generally followed in this colony of permitting cuttings of this loose soil at an angle but little removed from the perpendicular. Under the circumstances, it is not surprising to us to find landslips dangerous to the public safety occurring at every period of unusual rainfall.

The matter we refer to is one which the Executive of the Colony should take notice of without any delay; but we presume it is next to hopeless to expect anything like energy from that effete body, so we would earnestly appeal to our independent representatives in the Legislative Council to insist on better protection being afforded to the lives of a deservingly though humble class of the general community. This is a good opportunity for our excellent friend Mr. F. BULKLEY JOHNSON to air his eloquence on a matter of real public welfare, and to pose as the champion of a suffering or injured class; and we will only assure him that if he adopts this platform and convinces us of his sincerity in the matter, we will give him our support towards obtaining the coveted 3rd class ribbon of St. Michael and St. George, numbers of which, it is currently reported, will be shortly flying about. But of course the prior claim of our senior respected representative must be first properly recognized, before our powerful advocacy can be counted upon in support of Mr. F. BULKLEY JOHNSON'S claim.

THE Rev. J. C. EDGE has been opening himself out, at a public breakfast held at St. Leonards, Sussex, on September 24th in connection with the London Missionary Society, upon his work in Hongkong. Mr. EDGE described our favored isle as "a dot in the ocean," but he apparently forgot to say that he borrowed this rather original expression from the late Chief Justice Sir JOHN SMITH. Mr. EDGE also said that after the war between England and China, some forty years ago, some missionaries landed in Hongkong. They found a few scattered houses, and there was no vegetation, no trees, and no roads. Now ships from every nation under the sun sailed into the harbour, and round the island was a magnificent wall of granite, which has been found on the island. When the missionaries went there the entire population numbered one thousand. There were now 150,000 Chinese residing there in peace and contentment, protected by British rule, and living in harmony with Europeans. Hongkong was now a picture of beauty, a pleasant home, and a fine field for missionary labour. Having spoken of the labours of the early missionaries, the reverend gentleman briefly gave statistics recently compiled. There were 273 members of the native church, and the contributions from the Chinese in 1882 amounted to upwards of $800.

Until we read the above in a home paper we were rather sceptical as to the truth of the general assertion that "the chosen of the Lord" can lie as glibly as ordinary mortals. The Reverend J. C. EDGE would have some considerable amount of difficulty in showing his auditors at the bun banquet in fair St. Leonards, "the magnificent granite wall which encircles our island;" he would not find it an easy task to show that "ships from every nation under the sun sailed into Hongkong harbour;" he would certainly fail to prove that the missionaries had anything to do with the Chinese population of Victoria increasing from one to one hundred and fifty thousand; there might even be awkward obstacles in the way of his satisfactorily demonstrating to men of intelligence acquainted with the subject that the 150,000 Chinese he refers to are living in peace, contentment, and harmony with Europeans under British rule; but he could certainly prove that Hongkong is a picture of beauty, a pleasant home and a fine field—for missionaries. With from four to five hundred pounds per annum, a nice house and grounds, a good climate, plenty of pleasant friends, lawn tennis, tea parties and cup and saucer scandal, and next to nothing in the shape of work to do, the ordinary missionary's life in Hongkong certainly ought to be a happy one. And from our personal experiences of our local apostles, including Mr. EDGE, we should most decidedly say they are experts in the art of making things pleasant for themselves. No doubt the missionaries do a fair amount of good in a quiet way, but the results of their labors are quite inadequate to the extraordinary pretensions they are so fond of airing on every possible occasion. If Mr. EDGE and his reverend brethren must let loose their native eloquence before English audiences they ought to eschew nonsense and stick strictly to the truth. In what way, we would ask, is missionary labor amongst the Chinese in this Colony enhanced by an assertion that the contributions from Celestials to the church presided over by the genius of Mr. EDGE amounted in 1882 to upwards of $800? Taking the whole native population, who are said to be living in harmony, peace and contentment with foreigners, this contribution amounts to a trifle over half a cent per head. If the London Missionary Society can find a quiet corner in Central Africa for the Rev. J. C. EDGE, where the blacks are open to religious conversion, our worthy brother in the work of progress, may achieve something tangible in the good cause. But in Hongkong missionary effort is a mere sham. The Chinese are not quite the savage heathens rabid revivalists and their followers are so fond of painting them. We eschew the discussion of purely religious topics in these columns or we might feel inclined to traverse the nonsense spouted by Mr. EDGE by quoting some of the grand truths associated with the faith of the followers of Buddha and the believers in Confucius.

SUSPECTED FENIAN OUTRAGE IN LONDON.

Two explosions have taken place in the Underground Railway, injuring several persons; the outrage is attributed to Fenians. A reward of one thousand pounds has been offered for the apprehension of the culprits.

FRANCE AND THE TONQUIN QUESTION.

The French Government will ask next week a supplementary credit of 10,000,000 francs for the expedition to Tonquin.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

THE visitors to the City Hall Museum for the week ended 4th October, were—European 232, Chinese 2,535; total 2,767.

A REGULAR Lodge of United Service, No. 1341, will be held in Freemasons' Hall, Zetland Street, on Thursday evening next, the 8th instant, at 8 o'clock precisely.

A PROCLAMATION by the Governor appears in Saturday's Gazette announcing that the Tramways Ordinance (No. 6 of 1883), and the Order and Cleanliness Amendment Ordinance (No. 7 of 1883), have been confirmed and allowed by Her Majesty, through the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

MR. H. E. WODEHOUSE, police magistrate, notifies, that under the provisions of Ordinance No. 11 of 1844, a special session of the Justices of the peace will be held to-morrow at the Magistracy at 11 a.m., for the purpose of considering applications for licenses for the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors during the year commencing on the 1st December next.

THE estimated total cost of the new Taitam Water Works is set down by Mr. J. M. Price, at £113,500, which at three shillings and eight pence to the dollar, totals up the comfortable sum of $619,000.90. This is certainly a large amount of money to expend on this ridiculous undertaking, and the Hongkong community will be exceedingly lucky if the work is finally completed without the above estimate being greatly exceeded.

THE Lady Superior of the Italian Sisters of Charity informs us that an Italian Opera will be performed by the pupils of the Convent on behalf of the poor orphans under the charge of the same establishment, this afternoon, commencing at 5 o'clock. The Lady Superior, relying on the well-known generous support and kindness of the friends of the Institution, hopes that they will kindly attend, and beg to tender them in anticipation her most grateful thanks. A collection on behalf of the poor orphans will be made at the door.

It is rumored that the "Wedding March," an amusing farcical comedy, or comedy-farce, or whatever this kind of thing is designated by modern playwrights, has been decided on for the next performance of the Hongkong Amateur Dramatic Company. The representation will, of course, take place at the Theatre Royal, City Hall, and on that the leading female role will be filled by one of our stately jeuneuses d'role, who is said to combine in his accomplished person the requisite grace and effeminacy requisite for the part.

THE following regulations for the issue of subsidiary silver coins, signed by Mr. Lister, the colonial treasurer, are published in the Gazette—

1.—On the arrival of a shipment of silver coins in the colony, the colonial treasurer shall cause them to be assayed by the assay office, and the results of the assay to be published in the Gazette.
2.—Treasury to apply in order of priority, subject to the following restrictions:
a.—All applications must take the coins in the percentages in which they arrive, viz. (as present):
Twenty-cent pieces ..... 95 per cent.
Ten-cent pieces ..... 95 per cent.
Five-cent pieces ..... 95 per cent.
b.—No application must exceed the following limits:
Public companies and large firms ..... 500
Smaller firms ..... 250
Private persons ..... 100
c.—Regulations in excess of the above will be set out.
d.—When only 50 per cent of coins remain, leave to the public will be suspended, but all applications after such suspension of issue will be allowed priority on the arrival of the next shipment.
e.—The Treasurer will refuse any application which he may suspect to be made with a view to hoarding these coins, or to their exportation, or to their use in any way other than for legitimate circulation.

THE FOLLOWING IS FROM PUNCH—

JOHN CHAMBERLAIN'S SONG OF THE SITUATION.
"AIR—'My Queen,'"
I am not unfeeling halfway to meet her,
But I know her game, which I will not play,
Whether she'd like me, or I should like her,
I know not quite, but I shall give way.
Life's a race, and she is, and I am slow,
She'd take all my money and leave me none,
And rob me of all the pleasures of love,
But I'll get on, and I'll be a good fellow!

France has been going it awfully lately,
Kicking up her heels and right;
But I rather think she is giving ready,
If she suppose I shall not say so.
I'm not so humble as that, my Lady!
My apple is calm, but I carry a sting;
And though I'm "chickadee," I'm not a dove.
My nationality I am game for keeping,
And my neighbor I am not the thing.
And my shall fall, and my shall fall,
And I shall hold them, Trusting in God!

A CLERK is required for the Government Civil Hospital, and a competitive examination for the post will be held in the Council Chamber, Government Offices, at 2 p.m., on the 15th instant, in accordance with the regulations made by the Governor in Council. The salary of this important position is $240 per annum—that is, $30 per month—rising to $360 per annum. The Government can scarcely look for a great deal of ability, or anything in the shape of honesty, at such a miserable stipend as this. As there are numbers of fat financiers in various of the Government departments, certain favored officials drawing handsome monthly allowances for doing next to nothing, it is certainly anomalous that the Executive can sanction and support this miserable policy of paying a clerk, whose office requires a certain amount of education, ability and trustworthiness, a salary about equal to that of an enterprising street coolie. It is perfectly certain that no European or Maori has to do with the Government, can support himself honestly on $20 per month. The "good things" of the Hongkong Government service are carefully preserved for a certain privileged section; the general staff of the departments, the men who do the work, are allowed to live from hand to mouth—or to starve, so far as our paternal Executive cares. We say most emphatically, these things should not be.

We note from El Comercio that the German barque Hermann has changed hands at Cebu. She will change her flag and run as a coaster in the Philippines.

A CONCERT in aid of the sufferers by the late disastrous volcanic eruptions in the Straits of Sunda was being organized in Manila, according to our latest advices from that port.

A HAWK was rewarded with six months' hard labor at the Police Court this morning for snatching a string of 600 cash from a chair coolie in the employ of Messrs. Carlowitz & Co. yesterday.

THE British steamers Oceanic and Arratoon Aphar left the Cosmopolitan and Kowloon Docks this forenoon, the German steamer Electra and the Madras filling the respective vacant places this afternoon.

WE observe from the Government Gazette that the Opium Dross Farm has been sold to Mr. Un Ling of the Ming Man Shaing shop, No. 1 Wing-lok Street, for the year commencing March 1st 1884 and ending on the last day of February 1885, for the sum of $12,600.

A FINE of £10, or 3 months' hard labor, was imposed this morning by Mr. Wodehouse on the coolie whom sergeant Baker found carrying a quantity of dynamite in a basket on the Stanley Road on the 28th ult., said explosive having been stolen from the magazine at the Tytam water works, in the wall of which a hole was made, through which two whole boxes of dynamite were abstracted on the morning of the 26th ultimo. The coolie went to gaol.

H.M.S. Flying Fish, which arrived in port from Shanghai on Saturday afternoon, brought in news that the steamship Ningbo had run down a junk off Tamoo Point in the Lyceum Pass, and it was rumored that all hands on board the Chinese craft had been lost. On the arrival of the Ningbo later in the evening we were glad to find that the rumours as to loss of life were unfounded. Captain Cass reports cutting the junk in two, and having towed one of the halves of the vessel into harbour, but all on board were fortunately saved.

A COOLIE named Chün-Achik, who fully admitted the charge, seeing he could scarcely do otherwise, as the constable found one of the earrings in his hand upon arresting his hurried flight, the widow who was dispossessed of the valuables being at the time in hot pursuit of the thief, was sentenced to a year's hard labour at the Police Court this morning for stealing a pair of earrings from Mrs. To I in Hollywood Road at half-past six yesterday evening. These long and richly deserved sentences will at least rid the colony for some time of a portion of the rascally earning snatchers who infest it. But then their number is legion, and the most that can be hoped for is to thin their ranks.

AND yet another fire alarm. Many, whose slumbers, like our own, are none of the heaviest, must have heard the inevitable fire bell ring out about 4.30 yesterday morning. Happily it was not to announce a wide-spread, or even the beginning of a wide-spread conflagration, but simply that a chimney in No. 6 Wing-lok Street had caught fire, and was emitting a blaze. The wide-awake Chinese watchman in the fire-alarm tower at No. 5 Station observed the occurrence, and immediately rang the bell, which must have startled many timid residents from their early morning slumbers. An extinguisher from No. 5 quickly obliterated all danger.

SIR WALTER MEDHURST, one of the ancient landmarks of English enterprise in China, left the harbour on Saturday last in the steamship Thales, bound to Kudat and Sandakan, en route for merrie England, to pass the remainder of his life in well and honorably earned rest and retirement. Sir Walter may fairly be described as one of our very oldest residents in the Far East, his connection with China commencing in 1839. A numerous company assembled on board to bid adieu to the old gentleman, who was warmly welcomed by the British community in China by his genial affability to all with whom he came in contact, and by his firmness and uprightness of character. We heartily wish him many long years of life to enjoy the fruits of a well spent career, of which we, as fellow countrymen, are, as we ought to be, justly proud.

THE SUBSCRIPTION GRIFFINS.

The first contingent of the subscription griffins for the next Hongkong Race Meeting arrived from Shanghai by the Indo-China S. N. Co.'s steamer Fooksang yesterday afternoon, and were quickly landed, and stabled at Mr. Kennedy's Horse Repository, where I had an opportunity of examining them this morning. Numbering 18 in all, the lot must be pronounced so far as appearance in the rough goes, fairly good looking and promising all round. Speaking from recollection of previous batches of subscription ponies, I should certainly say that the present crowd, taking them as a whole, is generally superior to any I have yet inspected in Hongkong. I might even go further and state my opinion, that if the remaining 17, which are expected by the steamer Poang in a few days, are equal in looks to those already here, and if the galloping abilities of the ponies are equal to their formations and racing shapes, it is not very long odds against the winner of the Hongkong Derby springing for once from the subscription griffins.

Shortly before noon a few of our local "sports" commenced to show up at the Horse Repository, and after five minutes grace to give the absent subscribers an opportunity of being present, the draw commenced under the immediate auspices of the Clerk of the Course. The name of the genial MacOniodds was the first drawn from the lucky bag, and No. 14, a sturdy grey, with black spots on his quarters and black legs, fell to his share.

Mr. Paul's was the next name drawn out, and a spotted animal, lengthy and racing like, but in rather poor condition, was set aside as a future bearer of the "yellow jacket and white cap." Our latest addition to the list of Stewards, Mr. Noble, was the next recipient of fortune's favors, and the big, upstanding grey with the flea-bitten face should prove a more useful representative of this capital sportsman's interests than the weedy Bas de Soie. Another member of our racing executive, the cheery donor of the Farewell Cup, was next man out, and a white, with capital racing shapes but inclined to be vicious and rather on the small side, was passed over to the Bayan stable, to do battle for the Fatherland. The bay which fell to Mr. St. Andrew is promising enough, if anything slightly deficient in length, but well put together and with what looks a capital set of legs and feet. Mr. Woodin's grey, and Mr. Mac Dawson's white are both fine looking ponies, and I was struck with the great length of a sort of creamy grey which will bear Mr. John Peel's dark blue and silver banner. MacOniodds threw a second main for what I fancy will clip out a cream colored racer, and a new addition to the ranks of our local "sports" in the person of Mr. Eca da Silva, was fortunate (or unfortunate as it may turn out hereafter) in drawing a very handsome mouse or dun colored moke, with several capital racing points. Mr. F. D. Sassoon's grey is big and powerful enough for anything, and Mr. Woodin's second trick resulted in a black, lengthy and racing like, which ought to gallop. A big grey, with dark markings, fell to Mr. John Peel, and then a good looking chestnut was set aside for Mr. E. Sassoon. My way of thinking, one of the best looking and most promising ponies in the mob was a powerful dark grey, with good length and great power behind, which was allotted to the veteran Mr. W. M. Morgan, and which, with any sort of luck, should carry the "scarlet and gold" well to the fore both in the Valley Stakes and German Cup. Mr. St. Andrew's second venture was a spotted one with nothing very particular about his appearance, but I rather like the shape of the dark grey which fell to the lot of Mr. Stiebel. Mr. S. Hughes was the last name drawn out, and the remaining pony was a light bay or a dun, No. 11, rather a ragged sort, but long in the barrel, standing true on his legs, and not badly put together.

Of course, no man can write accurately of the appearance, soundness, or condition of Chinese race ponies until they are clipped and put into something like racing shape, and I do not pretend that the impressions formed after a hasty glance over the griffins and briefly jotted down above are of the least value. Later on, after the animals have been exercised for a time, I shall be in a position to speak more definitely. Meanwhile I am glad to be able to write so favorably of the appearance of the first batch of the Subscription Griffins of 1884.

AN OLD SPORTSMAN.

OUR POSTAL AGENCIES IN CHINA.

MR. A. K. TRAVERS, our assistant postmaster general, who has recently returned from a visit to the open ports of China, makes the following report of the working, &c., of the various postal agencies at these places—

I have the honour to report that I returned yesterday from a tour of inspection of the agencies of this office on the coast of China.

2.—During this tour I visited the post offices at the ports of Shanghai, Hankow, Ningpo, Foochow, Amoy and Swatow.

3.—At each port I called on the Consul, the Commissioner of Customs, and the Chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, with a view to ascertaining whether the postal arrangements were satisfactory or not, and I am happy to report that the present arrangements are giving satisfaction to the community concerned.

4.—At Shanghai I had an opportunity of observing the treatment of an incoming as well as an outgoing mail; everything worked smoothly and regularly. I found the postal property in capital order, with the exception of the mail cart, the bottom of which was rotten. I accordingly directed the Postmaster to have it repaired.

The cost of the repairs will be about $22. Besides our own office at this port, there are five other offices, viz.:—French, American, Japanese, Local, and Customs. The number of home letters, &c., going through the first is increasing, owing to the fact that the postal rates are far below our own. The Local Office is a great convenience to the public and is much used. For 30 cents per annum any firm may transmit an unlimited quantity of correspondence.

5.—During the tea season at Hankow a large amount of correspondence is sent on board the tea steamers, and taken by the captains to Swatow and there posted. If by some means we could arrange that this correspondence should pass through our office, it would add considerably to our Postal Revenue.

6.—At Foochow the community are still very anxious to have direct communication with Hongkong, but this question has already been dealt with by you. The community at this port at present suffer considerable inconvenience, which might be easily removed. The home-bound mails are closed at 3.30 p.m., as the only means of conveying them to the steamer at Fagoda Anchorage is by Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Co.'s launch, which leaves at 4 o'clock. I therefore suggest the expenditure of $1 per mail in sampans hire, as the mail might then be closed at any hour, to the great convenience of the community.

7.—The double office system at Amoy is working well. It is, however, a great pity that the Imperial Post Office will not allow an assistant, as to work both offices satisfactorily one is absolutely necessary. I would strongly recommend that this agency be supplied with a four-armed gig in place of the present dingy. It frequently happens that a steamer slows down about three miles outside Amoy, simply to drop the mails, and in rough weather the dingy is absolutely unsafe; in point of fact, the Agent almost always uses the Consular gig on these occasions.

8.—The new office at Swatow is much appreciated by the community there, as mails are now closed only half an hour before the departure of the steamer.

9.—The only offices possessing safes are the Shanghai and Amoy offices. While it would be advisable to supply each agency with a small one for the safe keeping of stamps, registered letters, cash, &c.

10.—I took the opportunity whilst at Amoy and Swatow of thanking Messrs. Eliza & Co. and Messrs. Butterfield & Swire for allowing us to use their offices for postal purposes.

11.—The foreign communities at the ports I visited complain of the inconvenience of the present system of issuing money orders from the offices in Hongkong and Shanghai alone. They would regard as a great boon any arrangements which would enable them to obtain money orders at the Postal Agencies of their own ports, as they would thus save much time and trouble.

12.—Before concluding my report, I must put on record my sincere thanks to H. B. M. Consuls at the various ports I visited for their kind assistance in helping me to execute my work.

AMOI.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

October 22nd, 1883.

Another addition to our community, Miss Möller, arrived on the 16th, the bride of our harbour master Mr. Hummel; they were married at Koolangseu next day.

During last week, the thermometer has changed and it is warm again; the thermometer showing 85 deg. at noon; mornings and nights are, however, pleasant.

The shooting season may be taken as begun, some gentlemen having been up river for a couple of hours and brought home a considerable number of birds, chiefly curlews.

The Koolangseu Road fund held its annual meeting at the Club on the 15th. Mr. Forrest was voted to the chair. The same Committee being elected again, accounts passed, &c. The meeting closed with a proposal that a cordial vote of thanks be given to Captain Cocke for the valuable chart of the island and Roads of Koolangseu, presented by him to subscribers, which was carried by acclamation.

The Ling Feng has been out to the Six Islands, I hear, and blown away successfully the last remains of the wreck of the steamship Hector; she left again, with the Commissioner Mr. McLeavy Brown on board, for Lighthouses and returned with him on the 20th. This morning she left for Formosa.

From the 16th, steamers are allowed again to carry Chinese passengers to the Straits on their week-enders. The steamer Galley of Lorie left on this date, and Strathleven on the 19th, both for New York via Straits.

German Barque Hilda Maria which had left our port on the 28th ultimo, for Chefoo, returned on the 16th instant, leaky. She will go into dock, after having discharged her sugar.—Shanghai Mercury.

SHANGHAI.

Sir Harry Parkes arrived at Chefoo on the 3rd, per steamer Sin Nanthong.

We hear from a reliable source that some troops will shortly be despatched from Shan Hai Kwon (the Great Wall) to Tientsin.

The German barque Chloris, which was put up for auction by Mr. Alex. Blefield to-day, was not sold. A bid of £115. 5.10 was made, and we understand this offer has been submitted to the owners.

Our readers will remember the German steamer Augustus, which was wrecked some time ago in the Amoy. In sight of Nicolaievsk. The insurance value of the cargo was £150,000 and the vessel, which was only three years old, was insured for £200,000. Mr. Paul Noelbel, the agent for the underwriters at Nicolaievsk, represented to the agency at Hamburg that the steamer was a total wreck, and considered that it was impossible to get her off with the local means procurable at Nicolaievsk. The Augustus was consequently sold, and to have represented an invoice value of £190,000 for £1,400. She was bought by Mr. Noelbel, the agent, who after pumping her out with little expense and with pumps, which he got in Nicolaievsk, floated her and made her, with trifling expenses, a sea-going vessel. Baron Lindhorff, the agent for Lloyd's at the East Siberian ports, visited Nicolaievsk in April last, with the view to investigate the sale and repurchase of the Augustus, and the Baron's action resulted in the steamer being handed over to the underwriters.

We hear now from Nicolaievsk that the Russian authorities who investigated the matter, charge Mr. Noelbel with fraud; he is consequently under the supervision of the police, not being allowed to leave Nicolaievsk. Mr. Noelbel is a well-to-do merchant.—Mercury.

MR. MOORE begs to recommend his

to the public as unrivalled by any preparation ever produced for promoting the growth of the hair. The basis of this compound is made of soap root, the natives of the Philippine Islands never use anything else for washing their hair; they are never found bald, and it is a curious circumstance that females with hair from 12 to 18 inches long, by constantly using this Shampoo Wash as directed, you will NEVER BE BALD!

The proprietor offers the Wash to the public entirely confident that by its use persons proprietor it will without fail arrest decaying hair, it completely eradicates scurf, dandruff, and cures all diseases of the scalp, which does not contain any poisonous drugs. By its cooling properties it allays the itching and fever of the scalp, which is the great cause of people losing their hair.

Mr. MOORE has succeeded in being able to put this wash up in bottles without allowing it to ferment, and he will guarantee to keep any length of time in any climate.
